

end, we were very proud to give complimentary massages to the men and women who fight for our country. It was an honor to do something special for our local troops!"

Award-winning spa experience

The Sanctuary Spa at Tradition was recently named one of the top five day spas in the Palm Beaches and Treasure Coast, earning a place on the coveted "Best of Day Spas" list. They have also received several local awards including "Best Day Spa in Port St. Lucie."

According to Barbara, "when it come[s] [to] their beauty and wellness needs, we have created an environment where our guests can enjoy rejuvenating spa therapies, knowing they can put their total trust in us. We live, breathe and love what we do."

The family's dedication, warmth and love for each other help to create a uniquely comfortable setting for guests and staff alike. "We are confident and innovative when it comes to providing guests with the newest and latest therapies," explains Justine. "Because there are always new treatments for them to try out; our clients never get bored so they always return."

Barbara is quick to add that people do not care if you have faux finishes or marble floors; they care about quality of services, ambiance, cleanliness, results, relaxation and customer service. ■
